We are choosing to do a chess board game project (category B). The functionality of the game will have three different playing modes; player versus player, player versus AI and AI versus AI. The interface will include both mouse and keyboard. The aesthetic of the game will be a chess board with standard pieces which we hope can have texture. We also have intention on developing a text based version of this project along with the graphical version.